BOOK YOUR BRIDAL APPOINTMENT

We want to make sure we have time to be fully devoted to you, so before you come into the shop, give us a call to make an appointment. This will ensure you are taken care of when you come in. When you call we will ask for a few details to get to know you:

Wedding dates will help us determine which dresses we can get in time for your wedding

Your venue will paint a picture of your wedding day

Your budget will help us know which designers you have to choose from

Style preferences helps us direct you to your dress

Your entourage helps gauge how much seating space we will need

DECIDE WHO YOUR KEY DECISION MAKERS ARE

After your appointment is all set up, you may be wondering who to bring with you. Bring your decision makers! Including everyone is not the way to go when it comes to what you want to wear on the most special day of your life. Steer clear of stress and think about who you want there for support or whose stamp of approval is needed.

Mom, sister, best friend, maid of honor, dad, fiance... no one at all? Every person is different. Some make the best decisions at their appointment alone and others are happiest when their inner circle is present. We recommend you set yourself up for the easiest time.

WHAT WE NEED FROM YOU

As for what to bring to your appointment: there isn't much. If you plan on wearing a bra for your big day- bring it. However, almost all of our gowns have cups in them already so a bra isn't entirely needed.

Anything special you plan to wear "day of" (ie: LDS garments, spang, etc) bring them to try on with your gown! Really we suggest you come as you are but be ready to find your dress.

WHAT TO EXPECT AT YOUR APPOINTMENT

Once you arrive at the shop, you will be paired with a bridal consultant who truly cares about you and your wedding day vision. We pride ourselves on getting to know you and helping you find your gown.

Begin to make yourself at home and settle in for some in depth chats so we can gauge your style. Your consultant will meet with you and your crew before whisking you away to make a list of dresses.

Don't worry, you won't be left alone to choose from what seems like an unlimited array of perfect choices! You will be guided based on your timeline, budget, and inspiration. Once the list is made it's time to start getting into dresses!

One step closer to your goal- finding THE DRESS. Saying 'NO' to beautiful gowns seems impossible, but remember you can only be so dramatic on your special day so: GO FOR IT GIRL!

DON'T BE AFRAID TO SAY 'YES'

Be open and be ready to find your perfect dress. Don't focus on whether or not you've seen every possible dress option out there, or whether or not you've found the best dress in the entire universe. Instead, focus on how the gown MAKES YOU FEEL.

Can you picture yourself walking down the aisle in this gown?
Are you excited to marry your best friend while wearing the dress?
Do you not want to take it off?

If the dress is making you feel like the most beautiful version of yourself, that's how you know it's the one. And when you get that feeling, it's time to stop shopping.

You did it! Now you can dream about your gown until it comes in, plan all of the other exciting parts of your wedding. Take a deep breath. You found the gown, the rest will fall into place.
